

A Minute With Mitzi

Happy October to you all. I hope all my “good neighbors” are happy and healthy and ready for fall to come ‘round. The changing leaves on the trees bring a smile to my face. Such beauty only God could create.

Here is some Advice from an Old Farmer you may enjoy-

- Your fences need to be horse-high, pig tight & bull-strong.
- Keep skunks, bankers & lawyers at a distance.
- Life is simpler when you plow around a stump.
- A bumblebee is considerably faster than a John Deere tractor.
- Words that soak into your ears are whispered... not yelled.
- Meanness don't jest happen overnight.
- Forgive your enemies. It messes with their heads.
- Don't corner something that you know is meaner than you.
- It don't take a very big person to carry a grudge.
- You cannot un-say a cruel word.
- Every path has a few puddles.
- When you wallow with pigs, expect to get dirty.
- The best sermons are lived, not preached.
- Most of the stuff people worry about ain't never gonna happen anyway.
- Don't judge folks by their relatives.
- Remember that silence is sometimes the best answer.
- Live a good, honorable life. Then when you get older and think back, you'll enjoy it a second time.
- Don't interfere with somethin' that ain't botherin' you none.
- Timing has a lot to do with the outcome of a rain dance.
- If you find yourself in a hole, the first thing to do is stop diggin'.
- Sometimes you get, and sometimes you get got.
- The biggest troublemaker you'll probably ever have to deal with watches you from your mirror every morning.
- Always drink upstream from the herd.
- Good judgement comes from experience, and a lotta that comes from bad judgement.
- Lettin' the cat out of the bag is a whole lot easier than puttin' it back in.
- If you get to thinkin' you're a person of some influence, try orderin' somebody else around.
- Live simply, love generously, care deeply, speak kindly & leave the rest to God.
