

A Minute With Mitzi

Back to school has come and gone. The mornings seem much cooler and that means fall is on it's way.

Sixteen Good Neighbor Club members recently took an amazing trip to the Canadian Rockies and saw some unparalleled beauty. Rockie Mountains, glacial lakes so blue they didn't seem real, wildlife and numerous glaciers, all being expertly narrated by our tour guide. Such an amazing group of people and sites!

The month of September we take another group of Good Neighbor Club members to our long awaited Germany trip to see Oberammergau's Passion Play and cruise the Danube River. We are going to compare the mountain majesty and see which ones are best!

Don't forget to take in the beauty in our own North Dakota during this autumn. We may not have mountains but we have our own kind of beauty in our rolling plains and our amazing people. Enjoy them both!

My minute is up...enjoy September!
