Crissy’s Corner

May 1 is May Day. Mark the return of spring by bringing in branches of forsythia, lilacs, or other flowering shrubs from your region.

May 1 is Lei Day in Hawaii. Leis are garlands or wreaths that are often made with native Hawaiian flowers and leaves. Nowadays, they are given as a symbol of greeting, farewell, affection, celebration, or honor, in the spirit of aloha. Lei Day originated in 1927 when poet Don Blanding proposed a holiday to recognize the lei’s role in Hawaiian culture. Writer Grace Tower Warren suggested May 1 for the date because it coincided with May Day, a celebration also linked to flowers. The first Lei Day observance occurred on May 1, 1928.

May 5 is Cinco de Mayo (“The Fifth of May”). This day celebrates the victory of the Mexican army over the French army at The Battle of Puebla in 1862.

May 14 is Mother’s Day—don’t forget!

May 20 is Armed Forces Day, which honors those who serve in all branches of the United States military.

May 22 is National Maritime Day. Created in commemoration of the first transoceanic voyage via steamboat (completed by the U.S.S. Savannah in 1819), this holiday recognizes the efforts of the U.S. merchant marine during both war and peace.

May 29 is Memorial Day—a poignant reminder of the tenacity of life. It’s tradition to raise the flag on this day.

PROTECTING YOUR PERSONAL & FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Tips to Help Stop Text Spam:

1. Don't Reply To Text Messages. If you don't recognize the sender or the number, you should ignore instructions to text "STOP" to prevent future texts. While it may be tempting to reply back with a strongly worded message asking the sender to stop, this is a common ploy to verify that your number is actively in use. Never dial call-back numbers either.

2. Block the Sender. One of the easiest ways to stop scammers is to block the number.

3. Protect Your Information. Treat your personal information, including your phone numbers, like they are your most valuable treasure. Don't give your number out to anyone you don't know. Don't put it down on that sweepstakes form at the local fair. Just don't.
